

LUDWIG-MAXIMILIANS-UNIVERSITÄT
MÜNCHEN

Institut für den Nahen und Mittleren Osten
Institut für Byzantinistik und Neogräzistik

und

SÜDOSTEUROPA-GESELLSCHAFT

laden herzlich ein zu einer Dokumentarfilmvorführung mit anschließendem Gespräch mit den Filmemachern

„The Other Town“

Mittwoch, 28. Januar 2015, 18.00 Uhr c.t.

Historicum (LMU München), Schellingstraße 12, Raum K 001 (Erdgeschoß)
(U3/U6 Haltestelle Universität)

Zum Thema: Why do neighbors fight? Why do the world's ethnic or religious groups experience mutual hatred and suspicion? The documentary film „The Other Town,“ explores the negative feelings of a Greek town, Dimitsana, and a Turkish town, Birgi, towards the „Other.“ Bitter sentiments and prejudices are widespread in both societies. Locals of all ages are caught in a web of stereotypes that impedes bilateral relationships between Turkey and Greece. Similar situations exist in many other societies around the world.

Directed by Nefin Dinç
Writer Hercules Millas
Duration 45 Minutes
Languages Turkish & Greek (English subtitles)
Production Year 2011

why do nations clash?