Western Balkans Regular Economic Report

Natasha Rovo, Senior Economist

Richard Record, Program Leader

20.10. – 13:00 -14:30 – SR 15.33 (RESOWI, 3. floor, part B)

The World Bank team led by Natasha Rovo, Senior Economist, and Richard Record, Program Leader, will present the Western Balkans Regular Economic Report. The report is the World Bank's flagship semiannual publication that covers economic developments, prospects, and policies in the six economies of the Western Balkans: Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo, Montenegro, North Macedonia, and Serbia.

This fall's edition titled: "Toward Sustainable Growth" looks at the economic impact of the shocks from Russia's invasion of Ukraine, sticky inflation, and tighter financial conditions. The report's Spotlight focuses on agriculture as an important sector that can help Western Balkan countries toward their development, greening their economies, and accessing the European Union market.

Natasha Rovo is a Senior Economist in the Macroeconomics, Trade and Investment Global Practice at the World Bank. Her work ranges from support to development policy lending operations to analytical work on macro, fiscal and growth.

Richard Record is the World Bank's Lead Country Economist for the Western Balkans. Based in Vienna, he coordinates the Bank's engagement on equitable growth, finance and institutions across Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo, Montenegro, North Macedonia and Serbia.
